

EndNote versus RefWorks: Which should I use?

Thursday, April 3, 2008, Noon - 1 pm
Falk Library, Conference Room B
200 Scaife Hall

Learn about EndNote and RefWorks, powerful tools for streamlining the organization and use of references for projects and manuscripts. The focus of this session will be on highlighting differences between these two popular reference management software programs, rather than specific instruction on how to use the products. Both products are available to students, staff, and faculty affiliated with the University of Pittsburgh.

Offered as part of the HSLS "Lunch with a Librarian" series:

- Bring your own lunch.
- Drinks and dessert will be served.
- All UPMC and University of Pittsburgh faculty, staff and students are welcome.
- No RSVP required.

Speaker: Ahlam Saleh, MD, MLS
